“ I met Leanne during high school and we ran cross country & track together. We lost touch around 1993 which I deeply regret, but thought I would share some old pictures of fond memories. My heart is so very sad and heavy. I express my sincere condolences to her family & friends. Sending love. God bless. 🙏 Manuela Blaney

I will always cherish the moments as we grew up as cousins. It was so silly when we would come to visit on Easter and we carry our Easter baskets to see who had the biggest one. Ocean City with family were the nicest trips and memories I will never forget. I will never ever forget that smiling face and your laugh. I won't get to call and talk on the phone anymore, this I surely will miss doing. I know you are now home with family. Until I see you again. Best cousin ever!
