

Leilani Bass

April 3, 1987 - December 23, 2013

Leilani (meaning; royal child of heaven)

Leilani Janay Bass (aka Little Tea Pot, LaLa, SuperBass), 26, of Accokeek, MD, passed on December 23, 2013 in Valdosta, GA.

Leilani was born in Panama City, Panama, April 3, 1987. Leilani graduated from Gwynn Park High School, Brandywine, MD, and entered the United States Air Force in November 2005.

Leilani spent over 7 years in the Air Force. She completed basic training at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, TX. She attended technical school at Sheppard AFB, TX and then attended advanced medical training at Joint Base Andrews, MD. She was assigned to Wright-Patterson AFB, OH and deployed to Kuwait in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. Leilani completed her military service at Incirlik Air Base, Turkey.

Leilani had a deep love for animals and desired to become a vet. She owned several pets over the years - Sachi, Romeo, and Adonis. Art and music became her special place, she wrote poetry, loved all genres of music, and became a movie critic in her own right. Family meant everything - she stayed in close contact with her parents and friends during her many travels away and abroad. She was introspective, graceful, sensitive, and selfless with her time to others in their time of need. Her favorite quote "Si deseas ser amado, ama" which means "If you want to be loved - love".

Leilani leaves to cherish her deepest memory: her parents Ms. Luisa Garza and Mr. Christopher Parks and Mr. Preston Bass (Christine), brothers and sisters, Angelica Bass Cummins (Will), Preston Bass III, Crestview, FL, Kenneth Bass, Norfolk, VA, C.J. Parks and Lerin Parks (Jacksonville, FL); many aunts, uncles, cousins and numerous friends.

Visitation on Friday, January 3, 2014 from 6PM to 8PM at the Raymond Funeral Service, P. A. 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, MD 20646. Service on Saturday, January 4, 2014 beginning at 10AM also at the Raymond Funeral Service, P.A. Interment in Arlington National Cemetery at a later date.

“ I met Leilani in 2005 in basic training. Our friendship expanded throughout 2006 in training to become a medic. She had such an impact on my life that she allowed me to name my daughter after her. MyKaiya Leilani Fulton. I will forever be thankful to Christ for bringing such a dynamic person In my life during a challenging time. I pray for her soul. True and Honest friend. I will forever remember the great times together.
