“ I remember my dear Aunt Lena always making cinnamon buns for us when we visited her and Uncle Tweety. We would come down the stairs in the morning and the house would smell so delicious of Aunt Lena's cinnamon buns.

My Aunt Lena was a wonderful cook! When we came to visit she was always in the kitchen standing at the stove. Cooking ham, bacon and tons of vegetables. She was always ready to serve you food. When we left she would give my mom and dad food that she canned from her garden. My Aunt Lena was a very lady. She always had a smile for you and spoke with lovely southern accent. I loved visiting her, Uncle Tweety and all my cousins. She will missed dearly. - Debbie Bush
