“ Mr. Giannini was a man that had the kindest soul. He was compassionate and had the kindest eyes, and warmest smile I have ever seen. I worked with his wife Lee and they had the kind of relationship that I can only hope my husband and I will have in the years to come. Heaven has gained a wonderful Angel to look down upon us and protect us. My thoughts and prayers go to the whole family.

“ *Lenny was the most gentle soul I have ever met. He told me often I was his favorite daughter-in-law, but I hope he knew how much I truly adored him. His family always came first because he loved them fiercely. I miss his chuckle and his witty comments. He had a gift for making others smile. I love you and miss you terrible already!

“ My father was an amazing man and will be deeply missed. He always made sure that the family was taking care of and was there when ever you needed him good or bad. I could not ask for a better man in my life to fellow in their foot steps, then his. I know he is looking down on us all to make sure we are okay and will never stop doing that. When it is sunny he is smiling at us and when it is raining he is crying because he misses us. Words can never say how bad I MISS YOU DAD AND LOVE YOU!!!!

Your son NICK
I LOVE YOU DAD!!!

“ Lenny was the Love of My Life. He lived for his family. One of the kindness, most giving person you would have ever met. His children and grandchildren were his world. Hardly a day would go by he didn't talk about how lucky we were. A great man has been taken into heaven He will never be gone from our hearts. As he would say all the time Did I tell you I love you today? My love for ever Lee
