“ Preston sorry i couldnt make it, my father told me after the fact. Hunting season is something that was a tradition with our families and since 1988 when big tony started to take me to "the farm" i had always been like a kid on xmas eve waiting to see you and Billy every year. Thanks for those memories and god bless you and your family.

“ If I could only tell you one more thing,thank you very much for all that you taught me,I think I was a good listener, you were a great teacher. I know you can't hear me well, you have touched alot of people in your life, and you will always be loved, and remembered. WE will meet again on the other side. God please bless the whole BROWN family From the MINTE family and Dean.
