“ One of my earliest childhood memories of Uncle Les was at his father’s house, known to everyone as “Granddad.” I was no older than 4 or 5. When he said hello to me, I ran away in fear and hid under the dining room table because I’d never seen a human so tall before! I remember his smile and how he tried to coax me out from under the table by assuring me that he was harmless. Looking back, I realize that his words couldn’t have been more honest. Uncle Les was loving, thoughtful, and FUNNY. He created three beautiful children - my amazing cousins - who turned into wonderful parents! Uncle Les, you’ll be greatly missed. Love, Diane

“ As a shy awkward teen, standing alone against the wall at Wilmers Park every weekend, Les took notice and immediately put me to work on production. His mentoring taught me so much, and in turn I met some of my closest friends through music and production. Anytime my band played, he'd tell me "mic your own drums damn it!!!" 🙌🙌 Les' mentoring has changed countless lives and helped shape SoMD music scene for years to come. Through teachings of Les and others like him, I now mentor hundreds of kids at my music school, the next generation of musicians. I doubt I would have the confidence to open the school without the teachings of Les and others. Thank you Les, your legacy will live on.

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Les’s passing. Les ran sound for us for so many years. Mostly at our largest show of the year held on Capitol Hill. He was a great guy, and was considered a friend by everyone in the band. On behalf of the Jack Diamond- Jim Steed Band, we offer our deepest condolences to his family and friends. Jim Steed

It is so terribly sad for us to read this tragic news. We loved Les as an outstanding sound guy, but even more as a friend. He truly cared, wanted to always get it right and understood, as Jim mentioned, especially on New Year’s Eve, how important that night was to the band, the venue and all of the attendees. We only have one New Year’s Eve a year, and it’s the beginning of a new year. Les wanted it to be perfect. Rest easy, dear friend. You will be missed and remembered kindly by the Jack Diamond - Jim Steed Band, all of our family and friends, and certainly all those you helped entertain through the years - Jack & Lisa Anne “ Sorry for your loss. I was in one of the bands Les had to put up with. I was always happy to find out he was running sound. He was always professional and fun to hangout with.
