

Lewis Phillip Oliver Sr.

August 25, 1957 - March 14, 2025

Lewis Phillip Oliver, Sr, affectionately known as “Fat Boy”, 67 of Nanjemoy, MD, passed away on March 14, 2025.

Lewis was born on August 25, 1957, in La Plata, MD to the late Mazie Ann (Alvey) and Lewis L. Oliver.

Lewis served in the United States Army National Guard. He was a self-employed plumber. He was an outdoorsman; crabbing, fishing and hunting with his brothers. He was a John Deere tractor, and Ford (or whatever brand he was driving at that time) guy. He liked to laugh and tell jokes, and watch wrestling.

He was a strong, hardworking family man, who was loved by everyone, but could be hard when he needed to be. He loved his family, and uncles; Johnny, Roger, Charles, and many others however, he lived each day for his grandchildren, who he always looked forward to the next time he got to see them.

In addition to his parents, Lewis is preceded in death by his brother, Gary Oliver; sister, Cathy Oliver; and half-brothers; Mike and Pete Ryback.

Lewis is survived by his wife, Judith Marie (Herbert) Oliver “Little Woman”; sons; Lewis "Phillip" Oliver, Jr. and his wife Pam, and Jeffery Oliver and his wife Ashley; daughter, Judy Oliver; step-children; Calvin Campbell and his wife Frannie, and David Campbell and his wife Kimberly; 16 grandchildren; 2 great-grandchildren; brothers; Robert Oliver, Ernie Oliver, and Donnie Oliver, and sisters; Janet Oliver and Celie Oliver.

Visitation will be on Thursday, March 20, 2025 from 2:00PM – 4:00PM and from 6:00PM until time of Service at 7:00PM at Raymond Funeral Service, 5635 Washington Ave, La Plata, MD 20646. Interment will be private.
