“ I remember when she got me the job at Pepsi Cola I was so thankful for that I had just found out I was pregnant with my son. She and I had a lot of fun working there we would go out to lunch a lot and some times even go shopping for an hour. She was a really nice and caring lady. I only wish I could have seen her before her passing. We did talk on the phone and texted now and then. You will be greatly missed. My old dear friend Lill.

“ Memories of mom, wow I have a life time ☐ 😊 I think the lord of my understanding for that. I'm sitting here this morning just wishing I could call her one more time. Mom loved everyone she meet. There wasn't anyone I brought home, that she didn't like. A new room mate, a friend, she just connected with people. She loved holidays and social events. Our 4th of July parties, when everyone would come to visit. She loved to have everyone over. Thanksgiving, and Christmas, she'd want to have everyone over, or at least one of them. This has been a part of her life as far back as I can remember. Mom had many friends throughout her life, people she kept in contact with, but one I know, her best friend, her sister, my Aunt Dot has there for her throughout her whole life. Mom loved her kids, and her grand kids. Mom loved her husband, mom and Ted had been together 40 years. Through life's up and downs, she always loved him. Mom has taught me a lot through life. Some times I don't want to listen to the advice she had to give, but would realize later on what it was she was telling me. Knowing she was never going to steer me wrong. Mom also liked her privacy. Which is why she lived where she did. Another beautiful thing. Living down on the water for the last 28-30 years, looking out at the river has been something that I'm sure she enjoyed tremendously. Reaping the benefits of the water life, enjoying the seafood, boating, the sunsets. She loved working with the kids at the camp just next store to the house. I can say mom had loved living down her for all these years. This is the reason we have chosen to lay her to rest at the Christ Church Wayside. She has had many opportunities to leave and move to the northern neck of Va, but didn't want to leave this area. This is where she called home, and this is where we will continue to visit her. May she Rest In Peace. Til we meet again mom, I will always love you.
