“ Linda was a "one-of-a-kind" friend to us, and will be missed by her family and friends.

*Dear Linda,
We'll see you on the "other side" one day, and what a day of rejoicing that will be. Until then, enjoy resting in the arms of our Savior Jesus.
Much love,
Dwight and Donna McMaster*

“ You were a beautiful soul inside and out. Years ago you taught me to make sure that I let the people I love know that I love them. I’ve carried that advice my whole life and still do. You were the kindest woman that I’ve ever known. You had a heart of gold!! I know God welcomed you in heaven with open arms. RIP Linda ❤️ Love you!!

“ Ages ago, but I always loved seeing Linda & Frankie; BJ, Tiffany and Cathy at Donna & Lou Barbers house on Christmas Eve. Also seeing them all at Uncle Don and Aunt Harriett Malloys for Thanksgiving and on my 21st Birthday, we won't mention the year!! Hugs and Kisses and prayers to the girls and their families 🥺💔

“ One of my favorite memories of gram she calls me and my mom late at night scared to death that there's a ferocious animal in her back yard so I rush there and as I investigate it's just little frogs in her back yard.
