“ Well Linda! So many memories through the years! Never forget when I 1st met ya. You and Tina had come along with Sue to see Suzanne Westenhofer to "assess" this friend she was dating. Glad I passed your test! My life has never been the same since! I will miss your infectious laughter, your sense of mischief, your sparkling blue eyes and you! Your road rages were legendary! And the way you told stories, just hilarious, so funny with your witty descriptions and your sarcasm, you'd have me crying with laughter! I consider myself blessed to have known you! The world is a better place because you were here! You are so very loved! Rest in peace, dear Linda, rest in peace. Rebecca "Splecky" Bentley

“ I will never forget that day when we had met up for the very first time, as cousins, face to face, at the Shard, London Bridge, London. It were a very special memorable day on 9th September, 2013-which had marked a very special friendship between us! Linda flew over from America to see me-i was hobbling about on crutches, having just finished physiotherapy; after my major knee operation, at the Rehabilitation Department, next door at Guy's Hospital. We had spent a lovely and enjoyable day & evening together, sightseeing on a Touring London Bus, all around Central London, going up the Shard with its amazing 360 degree, view of London which were very exciting! Afterwards, we had a delightful meal in an Italian Restaurant. Only for us to have to say 'Goodbye,' as it was time for Linda to travel back to her sister's house in Dorset. I'm glad we had the opportunity to meet up and got to know one another more via Facebook. We had so much fun corresponding with one another! We were so much alike in mind and thoughts-were almost like sisters, on the same wavelength! I will miss Linda very much - her laughter, her happy smile, and a great vibrant personality! An angel like a shining light-has now been taken, gone forever, from my life! Sadly missed Love from Cousin Janice xxc RIPxxx

“ My Dear sweet "import"...the words won't come to express how much I will miss you. Our long talks in the office. Us comparing stories of disappointments and great adventures. Your love and compassion were infectious. May you rest easy my friend and don't be to hard on God and how you think he should have handled some things. I love you and will forever miss you.
