“ Losing Linda has created a heavy heart for so many of her friends and family. She was like another daughter to my late Mom and a sister to the rest of us. She always said that my Mom, Hazel Bowie, was just like a mother to her as they shared many hours together when they worked as a waitress several years ago. Linda could make the most gorgeous floral arrangements of anyone I know. As we all mourn her passing, she is most likely up there with the Lord putting together a beautiful garden. i will miss you my dear friend and will see you again when the roll is called up yonder. Until then may you R.I.P. <3

Loosing such a special person and friend leaves a whole in your heart. Liz the special relationship you and Linda had was very special. Linda was a part of your family.Hold those memories close to your heart.I remember years ago when we would go to her house and make arrangements and Christmas ornaments. Linda was very talented. Prayers sent.
