“ My beautiful sister, oh how I wish I could turn back time just once. If I could see you just one last time, I would say to you "I'm very proud of you", you have been a role model for me and gave me strength in watching you grow to become the beautiful loving daughter, sister, mother, auntie and grandmother we all love and respect. You may not be with us; but you will live within us everyday of our lives. I know you are at peace now, no one can hurt you anymore. We love through life, and learn through death. You have taught us all a very valuable lesson, we will live by daily. Live life to the fullest, let no one hold you back or down. Use their unkind words as a stepping stone, to rise above all else. Be at peace my beautiful sister, when you embrace mom Darlene and Donnie, tell them I said I'm finally getting it right, they all would be proud of me. I love them more than words can say, but I know they are watching over each of us each day. Ps. remember the day, you Kitten and Deloris chased me up the tree? I know it was all out of love, but I sure was scared. Until we see each other again... I love you.

“ Lisa, I miss you so much!!! I remember all the texts that you used to send me saying good morning, and all the long phone conversations we used to have. Unfortunately life happened and we both got so wrapped up in our work that we drifted apart. You had it all, brains and beauty and personality for days. Your smile lit up a room when you walked into it and then that crazy peronality that would just lift a person's spirits in record time. You were a great mother and grandmother. And a great sister, daughter, aunt, and cousin. You definiately left a positive lasting impression on every one that crossed your path. You were so special to so many people. Rest In Peace my beautiful Angel. I love you!!!!
