“ There are no words that can express the sadness I feel for your family....I am so very sorry...
Although we will not understand His plan or reasoning until the day we leave this earth.. It is my hope that one day when we are gathered together in Heaven, we will understand and that all of the suffering we have endured in life will not have been done in vain. Until then, I know that Logan is in Jesus' arms & being loved on by his Great Grandma Penny, Uncle Ted, Great Aunt Sherry & many others. I know in my heart that he is now an angel watching over your family. Prayers going up for God to surround & comfort you all.
