

Lorenzo Senires Jr

August 11, 1937 - October 15, 2025

Lorenzo (Larry) Senires Jr., 88, of La Plata, Maryland, passed away peacefully on October 15, 2025, at the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center. He was born on August 11, 1937, in Washington, D.C., to the late Lorenzo Senires and the late Mary Anne Pettie Esperancilla.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents, his sister Ann Paje, and his grandson J.D. Dubyak. He is survived by his loving wife of 36 years, Louise Senires; his children, Paula Senires, Snookie Guetzka (Mark), Larry Senires (Sue), and Vincent Senires; stepchildren, Steve Willingham (Teresa), Terry Langley (Keith), and Robert Willingham (Connie); his brother, David Senires; 17 grandchildren; and 19 great-grandchildren.

Larry was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and uncle. He was known for his incredible storytelling, quick wit, and ability to make everyone around him laugh. He never met a stranger—every encounter became a friendship that he cherished and nurtured. Larry had a deep love for people and always stayed in touch with those he met throughout his life.

He looked forward to attending reunions—whether with his Navy shipmates from The Galveston, his grade school and high school classmates, former coworkers, or neighbors. Larry had a passion for travel, visiting 48 states and 10 countries. One of his favorite destinations was Las Vegas, where he enjoyed spending time six months out of each year.

A proud United States Navy veteran, Larry later retired from the Department of Defense after 32 years of dedicated service. He attended St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The family will receive friends on Friday, October 24, 2025, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at Raymond Funeral Service, P.A., 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland. A funeral service will begin at 11:00 a.m., followed by interment with full Navy honors at Trinity Memorial Gardens, 3221 Mattawoman Beantown Road, Waldorf, Maryland.

Pallbearers will be Grant Senires, Julian Dart, Joey Paje, Jonathan Wood, Keith Langley, and Justin Langley.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Larry's memory to the Humane Society of Charles County at humanesocietycc.org or to St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at sju.edu

“ Larry... What a wonderful kind loving man. I couldn't wait to hear the next story. I would ask him to tell me another over and over. Each as funny as the next. He was a master story teller. You felt like you were taken back in time. He had the gift to make you feel you were right there. I would start laughing even before the story because I knew it was going to be hilarious. The anticipation I felt. Then when you thought it would end, he d say no wait there's more. I just cannot imagine a world without Larry. He was so kind and caring. I was always so happy to hear they were returning to Las Vegas so we could get together. I treasured any time I spent with Larry and Louise. They were the perfect couple. I also shared the love of St. Padre Pio with Larry. He was a devout man. I know that right now he is Surrounded by the love of Our Lord wrapped in His arms and God is probably laughing at the stories Larry is sharing with Him and all the angels and saints. And Larry, know that we will take care of Louise for you. I cannot express how much I will miss Larry. Love from your friend and neighbor, Carole Bosrock

“ I went to grade school with “Buzzy”. Many fond memories. He could really be a character. Usually very quiet, but when wasn't he would be cracking us up. He attended a few parties in my basement, along with his (and our) buddy, Lee Haislip
Condolences to his family.

“ Memories with Dear Ole Dad

My father was a great storyteller. His stories and mannerisms were hilarious. It was even comical to watch him tell a story with such enthusiasm that you couldn't help but laugh at him as he told it. My gosh he would take his glasses off and wipe tears of laughter with his handkerchief that he didn't even have to finish the story and you'd be laughing.

As a child he would play silly games with us. One potato, two potato, three potato, foer! is how he would say it. From our BBQs in Deptford to cruising down the Delaware in his Manatee, my dad always made sure we had a good time.

Three years ago my dad had a surprise 85th birthday party that the family threw for him. The placed was packed from his childhood friends that he went to grade school thru high school with. Navy buddies. The neighbors from all the homes he and my stepmother Louise lived in. Extended family from out of town. It was fantastic to see a man in his 80s with so many friends and family who came to celebrate him.

Last year my brother Larry and I watched the Redskins vs Eagles game at my dad's house in LaPlata. GO BIRDS! Sorry Dad, my team won. As we were leaving, my dad always walked us outside and we'd spend another fifteen minutes talking. My dad said, "Hey kids, come here I want to show you something." He was looking on the ground and he said, "Oh there it is! You see that? That's a walking stick I killed yesterday." Larry and I looked at my father perplexed. Larry said, "Geez Dad you would have thought you killed a tarantula the way you were telling us this." Again, laughter.

This past August he turned 88. I gave him an Old Bay Seasoning Tommy Bahama shirt and of course we were eating good ole Maryland blue crabs. My father wore that shirt everywhere. I had him on speaker and my sister and I listened as he was so thrilled and thankful for a cool shirt because everyone wanted to buy that shirt from him. Boy, he ate up the attention and compliments. A simple shirt to bring him happiness. The little things in life were always cherished by my father.

Unfortunately, I recently got a new phone and lost all of my father's voicemails that I accumulated over the years. I purposely didn't answer the phone on holidays and birthdays because he would leave a voicemail with his bluegrass music playing in the background. Its moments like these that made my dad extra special. Of course, I always called him back.

I will always be eternally grateful for my witty, fun loving, kind and caring Father. So please do share your memories of our Father. We would love to hear them.

Thank you, Daddy, for all your wisdom, love and support. I love and miss you terribly.

Love,

Paula

“A Tribute to a friend “

Lorenzo Larry “ Buzzy “ Senires

I deeply regret that I cannot personally attend the funeral service for my friend “Buzzy

Buzzy and I first met in 1953 when we both attended Mackin High School in Washington, D.C. We kept in touch over the years as we attended class reunions of the Mckin High School Class of 1956.

Many of those reunions were hosted by Buzzy and Louise.

Regardless of where the reunions were held Buzzy always brought his cheerful spirit, and really kept it interesting, regaling us with his exploits in the Navy , and other interesting things that he did.

During his Naval career Buzzy served on the USS Laffey, the USS Galveston, and the USS Iowa, Buzzy was especially proud of the fact that as the Aide to Commander F. Julian Becton he accompanied the Commander off of the Iowa with the ships log in hand, as they were the last two people to leave the ship prior to the decommissioning of the Iowa. Buzzy also worked for the Naval Investigative Service, and actually found one of our missing classmates, as she was applying for a job which required security clearance. Buzzy also worked for a time as a waiter in an upscale restaurant named Ignacio’s in Philadelphia. The stories about that experience are hilarious.

Buzzy loved his wife Louise, his children, the Navy, and the Redskins. He was loved by many and will be sorely missed by all who were lucky enough to know and love him.

Our deepest condolences and sympathy to Louise, and the entire family.

Rest in The Peace of Christ Our Friend
