“ There’s not a time that I don’t remember Lorien being apart of my life. I remember moments such as us eating fries like wings, Toys R Us trips, power rangers (not talking lol), Barbie’s, walking in the hallways of High school, homecoming, complaining about our moms and when I needed someone you didn’t hesitate to be there. I remember in high school when people started calling you the crazy ginger and you kept that name! I remember card games during charger time and I remember spending the night. I thank God I have so many memories with you and I will forever never forget those memories!! A pink candle for the pink power ranger you loved so dearly!

“ Although Lorien grew apart as we got older I couldn’t tell you how many times I walked across the field to play with her when we were younger. My fondest memory I have with her is making a floor plan of a house out of leaves and playing house. She will be truly missed and always loved by many. My prayers and condolences to the family.
