It's hard to believe it's been 2 weeks since you gained your Angel wings. I miss you so much! I am so blessed that I had you as my big sister. We had many adventures together from playing together as children, marriages, camping, and one my favorites was our road trips. You knew how I am always the nervous passenger so you always let me drive which usually resulted in me getting lost somehow, but we just laugh and find our way..lol You were my rock, always there to give me advice, or willing to give your opinion whether I liked it or not, or just help me. But the biggest adventure of all, was us having our girls together. I hope they can retain the closeness as cousins as we did as sisters. Lynette, I love and miss you so much. My heart will never be whole again.

“ I never met Lynette in person, but she was an awesome person to speak to when she would order parts thru our company. Lynette moved up in her position and I haven't spoken to her directly in over a year. I asked how she was doing and now here we are. I'm stunned to say the least. A wonderful, lovely person who was funny and out going. Even thou it was just over the phone, you knew what kind of person she was and helpful too. She will absolutely be missed. My heart goes out to her family and to the people at AOC who lost an outstanding, hard working friend/confidant.

“ I first met Lynette in High School and we became friends right away. She was so friendly, personable and caring. Her Mom was my boss and she too, had the same personality. We lost touch over the years until a about six years ago. During my divorce she kept her door open and was there if I needed her. She's invite me out and we'd go to meals with other girls from school. It meant a lot to me. The other year she came by my Moms House. She was so excited she had met a great man. I honestly can say he brought her some of the best days of her life. He was a blessing. Her daughter Amanda was the light in her life. I just will never forget you Lynette. You were an angel on earth and you will be an angel in heaven. Heaven has received the very best. That is what Lynette was to everyone. The best!!!!

“ I first met Lynette from Goose Bay! She was A kind loving person who often talked about her dad, family & friends! She loved her daughter with all her heart & soul and fought till the end. What a fighter and strong person she is! Lynette you will be missed dearly by so many, so fly high you angel. My Deepest Sympathy goes out to family and friends, sending prayers to all. Rest in Peace, as I know you will you beautiful Angel!

“ I first met Lynette in the mid-90's at the Senate as one of her vendors. She and I became friends right away, Lynette always made you feel welcomed and was always willing to help whenever and wherever she could. Over the years Lynette always had an open door for me to visit her even if I did not have any business to conduct with her on that day. I am going to miss Lynette very much. Lynette was a wonderful person and I am happy to have known her and to have had her as a friend. It is just not going to be the same at the Senate without her. Rest in peace Lynette. God Bless “ God looked around his garden and he found an empty place.

And then he looked down upon the earth, and saw your tired face.

*He put his arms around you, and lifted you to rest.
God’s garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.*

*He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.*

*He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered “Peace be thine.”*

*It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn’t go alone,
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.*

*Thanks for the wonderful memories - you will live in our hearts

“ Lynette was a great co-worker and viewed as a caring supervisor to her team at the AOC. She was very knowledgeable, helpful and very sincere. She spoke highly of her dear Amanda and family. Despite recent health challenges, she was always smiling, very strong and often encouraging others. She openly expressed her excitement about her engagement and was so looking forward to the next chapter in her life.

To her family and very close friends - I pray that you will find peace and comfort in the fun and loving memories of Lynette. She will certainly be missed by so many.

“ Lynette and I have been friends for almost 30 years. We met at work with the Architect of the Capitol. I was her maid of honor in her first wedding and I was there for the birth of Amanda (except that last 20 minutes). I was there with her all day while she was in labor. I was running between her room and Susan's room making sure they were both ok. But I had to leave 20 minutes before Amanda was born to tend to my son who was with my parents. Lynette and I would always laugh about that. She was an amazing woman and a caring and loving friend. We may not have kept in touch as much as we should have but I knew I could call her and she would be there for me and me for her. I will miss her terribly. All my love to Amanda, Susan, Jim and the rest of her family. Thank you for sharing her with us.

“ I met Lynette when I started working at the Senate last year. We grew closer as we saw each other on a daily basis, discussing faith, family, and the things in between! She always has the ability to oblige any work issues I had, with always a smile. She was able to keep many things organized and on track, and never once complained. Her strength and spirit shone through in these previous few months. I find comfort that she is with the Lord, and pray for peace and understanding for her family in this time of loss. She will be greatly missed, and things are certainly darker at the Senate without her!

“ I first Lynette when I started working at the Senate. She was one of the people that I could go to if I ever had a question about anything. She was very sweet and very knowledgable. I started to get to know her more just before we moved away. I wish I had met her sooner, she seemed like a truly special person. So sad that I won't get the opportunity to see her again.

“ I met Lynette when I arrived to work in the Furniture Branch at the Senate office Building in January 2004. Lynette was the most helpful person I ever met at the Senate. Always cheerful and always giving outstanding advice. Not only did we talk about work but life in general and she was always upbeat about everything. To Amanda, Jim, Susan, Mark and the rest of Lynette's extended family and friends you have my deepest sympathy. Thank you Lynette, for being a great friend. You are and will be deeply missed.

“ Honey, I love you so very much and miss you so very much. Just thinking of you brings joy to my heart, yet tears to my eyes. I am sorry I did not meet you sooner in life to share many more years together. But God granted me almost two of the most beautiful years of my life with you. I got to experience so many great things with you. I learned what true Agape love felt like every time I looked into your eyes. I learned life was worth living as I held you in my arms. You made me a better man by being such an amazing woman. Until we meet again in paradise. Then I get to Love you for eternity.

Lynette, you were taken from us much too soon. Not only were you an AOC Senate Rock Star, my co-worker for 15 years, you were my friend. Even in my mourning, I can smile remembering how some days we called each other so many times that I had to call you from someone else's (work) phone so you would answer!
