

Marcia Ann Chewning

April 5, 1940 - July 15, 2023

Marcia Ann (Davis) Chewning, 83, of Newburg, Maryland, passed away peacefully on July 15, 2023, at Sagepoint Senior Living Facility in La Plata, Maryland. She was born in Roanoke, Virginia, on April 5, 1940, to the late Sherman and Ann Gearhart.

Marcia was co-owner of The Jeans Barn, a family-owned and operated clothing store in Waldorf, and a devoted childcare provider in her later years. She especially loved Poodles and the Game Show Network. She was an avid walker and a great conversationalist, always up for a good joke and a hearty laugh among family and friends. Marcia leaves a legacy of Southern hospitality. She welcomed all into her meticulously clean home to sit down and enjoy a home-cooked meal with all the fixings. You never left her doorstep without a bag or two of delicious leftovers carefully packed inside a Cool Whip container. She worshipped at La Plata United Methodist Church and will be missed by many.

Along with her parents, she is predeceased by her sister, Elizabeth "Betty" Forlines. She is survived by her three sons, Tony Davis (wed to Barbara Davis), Robby Davis (wed to Kara Davis), and Michael Davis (wed to Keri Davis); six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; sister Rosa Lee Coeburn, and brother Frank Gearhart.

Visitation will be held at Raymond Funeral Chapel in La Plata, Maryland, on July 21, 2023, from 2 pm until the time of service at 4 pm. The interment will be at a later date.

“ Tony, Robbie and Michael my heart is broken at hearing of your mom's death. I lost track of her after she moved to Roanoke. Did not know she was back in Maryland. I'm still in Brevard NC. I think of you all and have wondered how you are. I really missed your mom when she moved away. My love and prayers to all of you and your families. Gloria (Harrison) Gunther.
