“Maggie was most all the children in our families second Momma She lived with my children and I sometimes threw the years. We weren't just cousins we were sisters too we cooked together shopped and even worked the same jobs together. Maggie was a sweetheart she loved everyone and would worry about everyone. She always made me laugh when I was upset. I thank God for sharing his beautiful Angel with us on earth. Maggie my heart is so broken and I can't get you off my mind but I know your not in pain now.
