

Margaret Janell Martin

September 17, 1940 - October 1, 2018

Our beloved Mom and Grammy, Janell Martin, went to heaven on Monday, October 1, 2018 surrounded by her family. Janell was born in Folsom, Louisiana on September 17, 1940 to John and Tera Dillon. After marrying she moved to Maryland where she raised her five daughters.

Janell was a devoted Mom to her five daughters and Grammy to her eleven grandchildren. Throughout her life she held her family as the one thing dearest to her heart. She was filled with pride at each accomplishment and enthusiastically participated in all celebrations. She was always there for her family near or far. She was our biggest cheerleader, offering unconditional love, support, sympathy and motivation. Her enthusiasm for life and love of laughter and fun making memories will live on in her family always. Janell was an active volunteer throughout her girls' school years. She became a secretary for the Charles County Board of Education and various private law firms. In 1989, she married Dave Martin, of Waldorf, Maryland. Janell and Dave loved cheering on the Redskins and New Orleans Saints together. They were active members and volunteers of the Waldorf Moose Lodge. She served as a Senior Regent of the Women of the Moose and loved spending time with friends shooting pool, playing shuffleboard and winning at poker.

She is survived by her five daughters, Sandy Moses (Knob), Connie Sims (Chuck), Peggy Danielson (Derek), Julie Luppino (Glenn) and Angie Keesee

Janell was predeceased by her beloved husband Dave Martin, brothers Junior Dillon and Joe Dillon.

“ Janell it is with a heavy heart to say, you are truly and deeply missed by many. I was just texting wishing you a "happy birthday". An amazing woman with such wisdom and insight on so many topics. I always enjoyed our talks at the lodge. I'll continue to pray for your family and dear friends for strength and comfort trying to move forward without you by their side. Thank you for leaving me with the fondest of memories! Hugs, Rae Rae

Rae Ann Phipps - October 04, 2018 at 09:18 AM

Janell it's going to be hard not seeing you and getting that special hug and smile from you. We will do you proud and work hard as you lead us to do. Thank you for your friendship and your gracious way of sharing all the knowledge you had, so we stay on task at hand. I enjoyed our outings we had together, whether a ride together to a meeting, party or dinner, it was always special, when spent with you. Love and God Speed my Friend, Janice
