“ My deepest sympathy to Rosie, Shirley, Terri, and family. I will always remember the kindness Mrs. Williams showed me when I first moved in across the street. I was only there a short time before she walked across the street to welcome me with a home baked cake. Another sign that I was in good company was when she used to play her favorite music, usually Randy Travis, wide open!, it was awesome! I have missed her these past years, but I have taken comfort in knowing she was and will be in good hands.

“ Dear Ma,

I will never forget all those Thursday evenings we got together with Rosie, had dinner, and played pitch for hours. Those evenings were the most fun I have ever had. We laughed at each other, and sometimes cussed at each other, but always looked forward to the next Thursday when we could do it all over again. And you were the best player out of the three of us!

But most importantly, I will never forget the loving person that you were. I always got a hug when I visited and an "I love you" when I left. I love you Ma and I will miss you forever. You and Rosie made me a part of your family and I love you both for that.

RIP Ma. All my love, Patti
