

Marilouise Davis Tucker

June 8, 1924 - August 15, 2013

Marilouise D. Tucker, 89, of LaPlata, Maryland passed peacefully August 15, 2013 at Hospice House of St. Mary's, surrounded by family. Born June 8, 1924, in Kansas City, Missouri, she was the daughter of Ivan Nelson Davis and Mary Hakes Davis, sister of Peggy and Raymond.

After a whirlwind romance, she married Robert V. Tucker on February 6, 1944, sharing a journey of more than 67 years together. Besides being a top designer for Coles Ethan Allan for over 25 years, she was a wonderful mother and adoring and loving grandmother. She loved her church, especially her time spent with the ladies of the craft group. She enjoyed gardening, reading, playing bridge, volunteering and early morning walks with Maralyn Ashcraft. She rarely missed any of her grandchildren's games or shows! She also thoroughly loved her visits to Rehoboth beach with family and friends!

Marilouise was predeceased by her husband, Bob, son Robbie and daughter Pamela. She is survived by her children Ronald Tucker (Frances), Patricia Willen (Craig), Gregory Tucker (Gina), Geoffrey Tucker, and Kerry Tucker, 16 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren, her niece, nephews and friends.
