“ My deepest condolences go out to Joyce's family. Her sister, Beverly Greer Ryan, and I grew up together and were the best of friends. Joyce was a very kind and sweet person that was a happy soul and could bring a smile to your face whenever you weren't feeling in the mood for happiness. We grew up in Welcome, Maryland where everyone knew each other, especially the Greer family. May she R.I.P. in paradise.

“It is with great sadness I hear of Mrs. Irwin's passing. I am 60 years old and one of many students blessed to have been driven by her safely to and from school for many years on bus 120. She was a wonderful, caring person with morals and the right amount of discipline to keep all in line. I have never forgotten her and truly appreciate feeling as safe with her as I felt with my own parents. Rest in eternal peace Mrs. Irwin and know that you made a difference in many lives. My sincerest sympathy to her family and friends. Karen Lanham Johnston

“After I was told that you had passed I felt a sense of relief for you. I remembered he day you told me, that you had been a widow longer than you were married. Now you will be with Bob for eternity. I have missed you being next door neighbor more than you know. God bless you. Love you. Emily
