“ My Dear Sweet Mrs. Hughes, you were one amazing strong woman. It was a pleasure helping you on Thursdays, taking you to get your hair done and going to the grocery for you. You loved eating those fried chicken wings and salad, and let's not forget the fruit. RIP my dear friend, until we see each other again. Lots of love And hugs to the family.

I didn't get to know Mrs Hughes until she came to Fenwick Landing where My Mother-in-law resides. I so enjoyed my little conversations with her. It made me feel like I wish I had of known her in her earlier years, I bet she was a real pistol. She is and will be missed but I know she is in a happier place. Bless your soul Marjorie.
