“Mary Anne was kind, thoughtful, friendly and fun. When I worked with Ron, I didn't have only a great boss, but made wonderful friends. We had many fun nights playing cards, dinners, pool time, baseball games, and fun at their condo in OC. I will always remember Mary Anne as the balance with Ron... I cared for and loved them both. I most certainly miss Ron and know he will welcome MA with him now. They made a wonderful couple and were great friends. I will miss our times together looking over the scholarship applicants, and always keeping Ron as the focus when selecting the recipients. I will cherish their friendship and all the good memories. RIP Mary Anne... give Ron a hug for me.
