“ Mrs. Farrell was a strong-willed lady. She met adversity head on. No matter what life threw her she handled it with dignity and pride. Never complained. She raised 6 wonderful children and made sure they wanted for nothing. I will truly miss her at all of our family dinners. Gone but never forgotten. Love you Mrs. Farrell. Bobby Boarman

“ *What a wonderful soul. She treated me like a daughter. Always down to earth and real to life. I stayed with her daughter Jean about 40 years ago and worked for her and her husbands in their tobacco fields. Everyday we worked hard and she would leave early to make our lunch. Best meals I ever had. Good home cooking. She feed me like a pig and we worked so hard I never got fat. Would love to live those days again and enjoy her company again. See you in heaven Ms Farrell.
