“ Both my sister and I grew up with the Faunce kids creating wonderful memories in a nice neighborhood. Mr. Faunce was a great man, and his loss was shared by us all across the street. He was there for my Mom's injuries, and it was Mrs. Faunce who found my father 5 years ago as he was suffering his neurologic event. She called me immediately, and, because of her, my Dad is still with us today. God Bless Mr. and Mrs. Faunce, as well as Tommy, Teresa and Joey, who also kept a close eye on both my Mom and Dad as they advanced in their years. We were blessed to have neighbors like you. As for Tommy, Teresa and Joey, the best indications of the quality of parents you had are you guys yourselves. You should be proud of your parents' legacy, as I'm sure they were proud of you. Peace--Andrew and Phyllis Berens

“ Teresa, Joey, and Tommy,
So sorry for the loss of ur Mother. Many happy memories Have come alive for me having spent my childhood across from you all. What a wonderful , wild trip it's been! Many years of great kid fun from Spotlight toSwim lessons, St. Peter's School, bikes, Halloween, the barn ,the gravel pit, playing school or house in ur basement( the chalkboard). Ur Mom making chocolate chip cookies, or inviting me over for Her spaghetti for dinner which I LOVED! She saved all ur baby clothes ! She saved her toys from her childhood and displayed them under ur Xmas tree! As a Kid I thought this was the coolest thing ever! All her beautiful Hummels. she loved her kitties! And wonderful Brownie the Dog. She always took time to talk to me as a kid- Iappreciated it. Ur parents showed what great friends and neighbors were. For that, I will be eternally grateful. Ultimately, ur Mother demonstrated true love, devotion, ultimate gift of friendship, when she helped my mom without fail when she became sick. Thanks . God bless you, Mrs . Faunce, I will always love you and your family! I bet my mom been waiting for you and I know she's glad to see you in Heaven!

All my love,

Carole Vincent
