“ Mom, today June 19th, is a hard and difficult day for me. It's so difficult still to imagine your with our savior and not with all of us. I know in time will heal my heart.

“ Mrs. Mary, a remarkable woman who brought joy and happiness to all who knew her. Her legacy will forever be intertwined with the delicious cookies she lovingly baked, the radiant smile that lit up every room, and the invaluable advice she shared with us. In moments of uncertainty, Mrs. Mary's calming presence reassured us, like when she explained that the giant spiders in our new home were harmless wood spiders. We shared a special bond through our mutual love for Kenny Rogers, creating memories filled with laughter and song. I will remember her with joy and gratitude for the beautiful impact she had on our lives. May her spirit continue to inspire us to live with kindness, warmth, and a zest for life.
