“ Frances was a fun-loving cousin! She could make you laugh till you cried. Frances was kind hearted and cared about her family and friends. Frances loved her Aunt Jean (my mom), and would visit or phone her often. Mom would say "that crazy Mag"! Sure will miss her laughter. May she rest in peace.

“ Betty Jean and I were cooking with Frances in her WV kitchen when in the doorway appeared a tall, thin farmer in overalls. He disappeared as quickly as he had appeared. I looked at Frances, "Did you see that!" She narrowed her eyes and nodded yes. I said he looked all grey. She said she could see color. I said he looked angry and she agreed. She laughed and said he was looking at you and laughed again. It tickled her that the ghost was mad at me!
