“ I met Mary and Herb a few years ago. What a lovely devoted couple. Mary looked after her mother in law as if she were her own Mother. I would enjoy seeing them at times at Walmart. Always smiling. I am sure she will be missed by all who were blessed to know her. My prayers are with the family Lee Giannini Sagepoint

“ Millions of memories I got to experience with my Mimi over my lifetime. From constantly getting to play in her pool, bringing my friends to meet her and having sleepovers at her house, practicing lacrosse and seeing her face light up when she caught the ball, prepping thanksgiving meals with her, painting her nails and her saying she loved them when it looked bad, her encouraging me to join the choir with her and singing along as pop pop played the piano the night before , her telling me to go in the other room to search for something that wasn't there as her and my mom surprised me with abc electric scooter, helping her set up the Christmas tree and the train track, her waking me up on Christmas morning, her showing me the Lord I will never forget that day and giving me a Bible for my 15th birthday, her trying to train Toby to close the door behind him her and I laughed so hard and simply just swinging on the porch and falling asleep outside. She was the brightest part of my life. She never stopped supporting me. She was there at every lacrosse game no matter how cold or rainy it was. I never saw her get upset unless it was because of PopPop losing his glasses which turned quickly into a laugh. She loved her life for the Lord. She constantly talked about when she would get to join the Lord and I know she was very excited. My heart breaks that I no longer have her by my side but I am grateful that I have gained the best guardian angel watching over me and my safety. I love her with all my heart and will miss her dearly.

“ Our prayers are with Herb and the family for peace and comfort in this time of need. We loved Mary very much and the love she had for her husband and family and the love she had for her church and the church family and the children there she taught during the children church hour once a month.

There will be this big Void at our Maryland Point Baptist Church with the passing of our dear friend and sister in Christ.

Mary we love you very much and know you are in a better place than us. We will meet again in Heaven my friend. We will look out for Herb I know he is lost without you.

Love Debbie & Bobby Gilroy
