“ Ms. Mason, you were a woman of beauty, elegance, love, and grace. I am blessed/honored to have known you and grateful for your loving daughter, Pam, who introduced us. I see pieces of you in Pam and I know she will continue to carry on your legacy of loving/serving others along with others of the family. I pray the family and all that knew you will find comfort in the wonderful memories shared with you. Rest In Peace beloved.

“ *Hi Mama,
I am speaking to you as you are still here in spirit. There are so many memories, so many stories that I can reminisce about, but those are my personal keep sakes. You will be missed. You had a way of making everyone feel a part of your family. You are the true definition of a mother and we your extended children made the right selection when we called you “mama”. You will forever be in my heart and many others. You did what God asked of you when he placed you in each of our lives. Forever love you!*

Amen! Yes, my mother was the true definition of the word “mama” to those that excepted her as that. Love you, Pamela

“ Ms. Mason, you were like a second Mom. I will never forget all the good times you, Linda, and I had. I remember going to get breakfast at 1 a.m. after Linda and I was running the streets. We had some good talks. I'm blessed, you helped to shape who I am today. May you rest in peace. Love Sonya Goins

“ I am so thankful for the conversation you shared with Pamela and Myself. I will always remember the laughter we all shared that day. Your sense of humor your love and your genuine spirit . I once read , We all want to be remembered for something. We have children, we paint, we write, we fight, we conquer. We leave behind marks on the fabric of humanity, and while some are content to stay in the background, some of us want to make those marks as vivid and as possible. We don't just want to be remembered. We want to be unforgettable. Forever missed, forever loved Keisha'Sharay
