“ It was my privilege to care for Ms. Padgett several times over the past few years. For those who knew Ms. Padgett, they would understand when I say what a caring and wonderful person she was. Ms. Padgett loved life and loved sharing memories of herself as a child and as an adult. She loved people, forging friendships, and you can always look forward to her holiday cards. She will be deeply missed and I will remember her fondly. I also had the privilege of taking care of her mother several times before she passed away and for those who knew either of them, they would know what a beautiful family they came from. I also had the privilege of knowing Ms. Padgett's sister, Sandy. Ms. Padgett adored her sister and would always refer to her as the baby. My deepest condolences to Sandy and her family. I know how heartbreaking this must be for her and I pray for strength, peace and comfort in her time of sorrow.
