“ When I first met Mary, it was at a AA meeting with her husband WILLIAM. She greeted me with a big smile. I knew her husband slightly, but as time went on, I grew to look at him as an older brother every time I saw his wife she gave me the same big welcoming beautiful smile that made me feel welcome. I'm gonna miss that smile but every time I see WILLIAM, I'll see his beautiful wife smiling

Marybeth represented joy, laughter, warmth, always welcoming with open arms, love .. Marybeth was the friend that made your snort while laughing, didn't have to communicate every day and could pick right up wherever you left off.. she was an amazing mother, great wife and friend and absolute best road dog for life!! Love you MB! Her smile and laughter left footprints on my heart. I am praying and sending love and positive vibes as I know she is there watching over, protecting and is with you in spirit! She would never leave the animals .. (lol) or you!! She will be guiding us all.
