“ Heartfelt condolences to all lucky enough to be in Joyce's inner circle. Such an amazing lady! Smart and thoughtful, always seeming to remember more about me than I ever could about her. She'll be missed by so many. May peace, positive thoughts, and fond memories come to all who mourn her loss.

“ *There were 5 of us--Joyce had the dimples in her cheeks, the beautiful blonde hair, and the brains to excel in school! I was always proud to be her big sister especially in the later years when she remained so positive and thankful despite setbacks she endured. Love you very much and know you are happy in heaven. “ My sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Wynn. I first met Mrs. Wynn and Karen when my mom Mary Smallwood-Room 318A became her “next door neighbor” at Sage Point. Whenever I saw her she always had a beautiful smile and was always pleasant to talk to. I pray that God brings peace and comfort during this time of grief.

Sincerely, Mari Smallwood

“ No matter what I did I knew I would always have support coming from my grandmother and I can never be more thankful for that. A day will never pass that I don't miss you or think of you. I was so blessed to call you my mom mom

“ I remember you as a child growing up together, we had a close relationship; we were close as teens going to dances, having friends together. You were a good wife, mother, and a special grandmother and great grandmother. Your relationship with Jesus and Mary, the mother of our Church was always an inspiration to me and Smitty. I will love you forever and a day!

My husband and I were privileged to know Mary Joyce Wynn both at St. James Episcopal Church and at Good Shepherd Catholic Church. We will truly miss her smart, cheerful personality and her gifts for kindness and friendship. We always admired her knowledge of the antique business and thoroughly enjoyed visiting her shop in Remington, VA. Rest in Peace, Mary Joyce. With Sympathy, Alice Outerbridge
