“ Matt,
The employees at the ISS family are now just learning of your passing and are extremely saddened by this news. We all enjoyed hearing from you and were considered one of our favorite appraisers (along with your brother)! We are reading you were a Pittsburgh fan, must be a part of why we liked you so much;) You will surely be missed! Our thoughts are with your family at this time.

“ Matt you were one of the biggest reasons I went to work each day at JCM. You were my bestie at work. I remember all our conversations during our smoke breaks and lunches, video chats and texts. You made me feel loved. You were such a good friend to me, always there to cheer me up, and laugh with. I am so glad that I had the privileged to know you and meet your family a few weeks ago at church, the church you were so proud of and introduce me to. May you rest in peace buddy and fly high with the angels.

“ Matt and I worked together for more than a few years. I always enjoyed his company. We talked about anything and everything from sports to religion. Matt always respected and attempted to understand one's stance on a subject meaning he never judged anyone. I spoke of him as being that old man that looked wayyyy younger. Still to this day I refer to him as a kid. I can't believe this would happen to this good kid. May God bless you and watch over your family Matt Aaron. You will be missed greatly.

“ Even tho me and you were a decade apart we became best friends the minute we met. We enjoyed the same music, skateboarded back in the day. And always loved to goof off. We had a connection from the beginning. You always told me I was just like you. And i cherished that. To have a friend that I could not only talk to about anything, to my gf issues to deep down the rabbit hole lmao. Not many will understand that but I know your laughing right now.😂😂
❤️ eventually I became friends with your kim and would come over to hang. What changed everything was when my lil stinker was born. I was instantly attached and I fell in love with her. She seemed to cling to "her cardo!" quickly and I couldn't get enough of it❤️. I love her like shes my own. Nothing I wouldn't do for her. I am forever grateful to have such a pure positive soul in my life. I fell in love with your family like it was my own. I love all three of you so dearly and I'm sorry I haven't been able to come over so often. I live with the guilt everyday man now that I can't call you anymore. I'm still grabbing my phone to show you my latest song and I'm smacked in my face over and over again missing you. You were truly my biggest fan, supporter, friend, brother, and role model father. You will always be in my heart and a part of my soul my man. You know this that and the third(hahaha you couldn't stop saying it) I will always have wonderful memories with you. Fly my brother fly. Until I see you again please watch over me. And I will forever have your families back. Love you man. -"caarrrrdeetoooo!" (As matt would say😂😂)
