“ My fondest memories of Matt were all the years he and Carl spent together. They talked every day, played video games and were the best of friends. I will miss his quiet sweet nature, and will remember him always. Matt came to my house many times. He spoke of his sadness at losing his mother. He spoke of his grandmother and her loving him so much. You will be missed my sweet young man. Carl has not come to resolve that you are gone. This will take time for everyone.

My heart goes out to his grandmother, father, aunt and cousins he leaves behind. We will all miss you.

*Your loving friend,
Barbara Foley*
