“ Mazie was a wonderful neighbor. My observation of her was she was a loving careering person who took care of my good buddy Ronald for a number of his declining years. She was a loving mother and she told me she even took care of her younger siblings when she was just a youngster herself. Mazie took life on with a degermation that many of us lack no matter what the challenges were. She was the envy of the neighborhood with the beautiful decoration of her home. She certainly did her own thing. It takes courage to pain your front door a bright red in my opinion. You always felt welcomed when you went to her place. Ray Short 406 Linden Lane.
