“ *Dearest Ruth, Roger and Family,
I was so sorry to hear about this terrible tragedy. I remember Micah as a cute little kid running around your house Ruth. No words can express the sorrow I feel for you all. I pray for God's blessings and peace on everyone there.*

I will miss seeing Micah in the halls of the church and in the church kitchen Sunday mornings, getting doughnuts/coffee, wearing his hat. I once told him there was a time, when we took our hats off in church to honor the Lord. I noticed that Sunday, Micah took off his hat to honor the Lord, as he entered the Sanctuary.

I also remember Micah working at the church with Pastor Marvin and my husband Randy Collins on repairs and/or the Saturday set-ups for Sunday Services (setting up chairs, tables, etc.,).

I have never heard a negative word from Micah, He was always respectful.

I remember my husband working with him on the trees at Pastor Marvin's and Dona's house.

I remember how his sister, Rachel (who worked with me) spoke of him with such love and pride.

I remember my husband telling me how he wasn't afraid of anything! How he could ride a bike not long after he could walk, it seemed.... and how he road his skateboard off of the roof of the house once.

We didn't know how much Micah enriched our lives, until now. You are sorely missed!

“ I didn't know Micah but I lost my beautiful son, Jeremy. This is absolutely the hardest thing to go through. I send my prayers to the family and assure you that the knowledge of him, in heaven and that you'll see him again, will sustain you. Love, Cheryl Caleco, Danny and Caroyln McKinney's daughter.

My son, yesterday you would have turned 29 and I still miss you and think of you often. As tears roll down my face I am sorry that you never saw me worship Jesus, the creator, as we were all made to do. I failed in so many ways and if I have one hope on judgement day, it is that there is some type of forgiveness at the foot of the cross for those who's parents did not tell their children everything that they should have.
