“ I have sat here and tried to write something several times now and everytime I do I delete it and start over. All I can say is my heart aches for Mikes family and his 3 beautiful boys. He was a wonderful person always trying to find the good in the situations we are given and his humor he was one of the funniest people I have ever known. I am truly glad to call you my friend. Rest Easy Mike, you are truly missed!

“ My Best Friend..The Best Man in my wedding... We grew apart but never lost touch... So many memories I could share but it would take me days. Hunting, fishing, sports, you name it we did it. My heart hurts more then I could ever imagined. He will be missed more then you could ever know. My prayers go out to Treeci, the boys family and all of us as we mourn a tragedy. May God be with you Mike. I love you brother. I hope we meet again..
