“ Those we love never truly leave us. Death simply cannot touch my everlasting love for you. Missing You, Dad! Every single day, I think of you. How much I wish you were here... to see your grandson grow ( he's taller than me now ) to see you during the holidays, to see your smiling face and just to hug you again. I have felt pain in my heart many times, but nothing has hurtful to my heart as losing you. I love you dad, so much!

“ I keep reaching for my cell to see if you've sent me a text. So much has changed since you left, so much continues to change and it's heartbreaking. You've held this family together for so long, we are lost without you. I miss you so much and with each passing day, my heart hurts more. I wish I could have done more to celebrate your life. You deserved to have family and friends surround your memorial with love and stories. Until we meet again, I love you with all my heart DAD!!

“ I am missing you so much, dad. First Father's Day without you, I wanted to text you so bad. I wish I had your cell phone, so I could carry it with me at all times. I know you never went anywhere without it. To have one more day, one more text message or just know you got mine. I love you, dad! Happy Heavenly Father's Day.
