

Michael Fanase

February 8, 1929 - May 6, 2020

Michael Fanase, age 91 of La Plata, Maryland, died May 6, 2020. He was a member of St. John's Catholic Church in Clinton, Maryland and later attended Wednesday Mass at Sagepoint each week - he loved his Catholic faith.

Michael served in the United States Air Force and World War II. After serving in the military, he was a manager and butcher at Jay's Frosted Foods in Washington, DC for 37 years. He loved people and his family, especially his wife, Lorraine, as they celebrated 68 years of marriage. He also loved horse racing and had several horses that he raced. He was from a family of seven brothers and sisters and parents that came from Italy to the United States and made a life for themselves and their children.

He was the son of Anthony Fanase and Marie Sabatasse Fanase. In addition to his parents, he was also predeceased by his wife, Lorraine P Fanase.

He is survived by his daughters, Linda Meliani (Mustapha) and Tammy Semega and his grandchildren, Jessica Semega, Nadia Meliani, and Kenz Meliani.

Due to Coronavirus restrictions at this time, Mass and burial will be private.

Memorial contributions may be made to Dementia Society of America, PO

Box 600, Doylestown, PA 18901.
