“ Lets please have another family reunion, though not at a cemetery. Its not ok that all the family reunions happen at cemeteries. There should be one every few years, with the understanding that not everyone can make it every few years. No, the Independent didn't give Irma the attention she deserved. She is, after all, the daughter and granddaughter of former Waldorf toastmasters, I mean postmasters.

“ RIP Aunt Shelly
Thanks for always laughing with me. i always knew if i needed anything you would try your best to help out. The last year or so was a pleasure to have been able to keep in touch.
Prayers to my cousins and their families.

“ *RIP Shelly,
We had some fun times back
In our earlier days as we were both newlyweds. I'm so sorry we lost touch over the years. I will always cherish our memories and think of you.
Love,

In good times and not so good times, dear Shelly, it always brought a smile to my face when we saw each other and we sure saw each other in some odd places. Peace to you my friend of nearly five decades. I know the kids know this but I'll say it anyway. She sure loved you all.

Can't imagine the joyous reunion in Heaven with our families. We grew up together like sisters, and it is hard to accept the fact that you are really gone. So happy you have been healed and the suffering has ended. Many prayers being said for you and your family! Love you, Bonnie Hill (cousin).

Brother, oh how I love YOU ❤️ i know this is the hardest hurdle we have to jump but we can do this. We were definitely raised to be STRONG, LOVING, and CARING children which followed us ALL into our adulthood. All 3 of us had different relationships with mom, but that's ok. She knew how much we loved her. I want to take this moment to Thank you for living with mom and taking care of her. I love you and we will be ok.

“ From childhood and all through school I've enjoyed staying in touch with Shelley. We had a prayer group that Shelley took part in. The group consisted of past classmates and new friends. I was blessed to see Shelley and daughters at the hospital Thursday. Rest In Peace my friend, you will be missed by many. Your strong Faith offers us peace.
