

Mildred Elizabeth "Millie" Womble

December 16, 1919 - September 9, 2018

Mildred Elizabeth "Millie" Womble, age 98 of White Plains, Maryland (formerly of Cameron, North Carolina), died September 9, 2018 at the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center in La Plata, Maryland.

In her early years, Mildred worked at various positions in her hometown in North Carolina, including Librarian at Massey Hill High School. After her marriage to George Peterson at age 21, she moved to Washington, DC where she held a short-term clerical position with the United States Government. Ultimately, Millie retired in 1980 after 30 years of service as clerk/typist and receptionist at the International Union of Plasterers and Cement Masons, AFL-CIO, located in Washington, DC. Amazingly and all the while, Mildred was the loving and devoted mother to her three children, always keeping her dedication to her church as a primary focus for herself and her family. Over the years, Millie became an accomplished seamstress and poet, for which she received countless awards. After retirement, Mildred enjoyed traveling (including missionary trips to Israel and Haiti), sewing, scrapbooking, and spending as much time as possible with her family and church activities. At age 92, she married George "Mack" Womble.

She was the daughter of Robert Henry Keel and Nina Emerson Gough Keel. In addition to her parents, she was also predeceased by her husbands, George Peterson, George Holmes, Earl Rigsbee, and George "Mack"

Womble; her brothers, Paul Keel and Hermas Keel; and her sisters, Maltie Suggs and Viola Stewart.

She is survived by her son, Gerald Peterson; her daughters, Nina (Peterson) Davis and Barbara (Peterson) Canter; and seven grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren.

Visitation on Monday, September 24, 2018 from 9:30AM until time of Funeral Service at 11AM at Raymond Funeral Service Chapel, 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646. Interment to follow at Trinity Memorial Gardens, 3221 Mattawoman-Beantown Road, Waldorf, Maryland 20601.

Memorials are asked to Falcon Children's Home, 7569 N West Street, Falcon, North Carolina 28342.

“ We love Millie and she will be sorely missed. Here she is with Mac meeting Socorro's Mom and brother Bill in December 2014. She really enjoyed the table decoration we got her of a little birdhouse with birdies popping out singing a tune! Rest in Heaven's Peace with the Lord. Love Magda and Billy Higgins.

“ Mildred was always counted as one of our family members from the time of introduction by brother-in-law, Paul Keel, her brother. We had wonderful times making memories which we will long remember. Barbara, Nina, and Gerald I share your hurt and will keep you in our prayers during this sad time. Love you all, Maxine Fletcher

“ *Dear Mildred,
My Nana through marriage,
When I think of you I think of pointy toe shoes and puffy sleeve dresses. You always dressed so cute. When we would talk at church I would tell you I had shoes just like yours when I was a teenager but, one of my fondest heart felt memory is...
You never called me by my first name I was always Ricky's Mom to you and at times I often wondered if that was good or bad to you but I just loved ❤️ it. You gave me that and I gave you Ricky!! 😊
I'm so happy that we got to share our birthday's together. Oh by the way, my first name is Linda. See you in Heaven!
Loved you with all my heart. ❤️
Ricky's mom! 🥰*

“ One of my earliest and fondest memories of me and my grandmother was snapping green beans on her back porch together, several times, picking vegetables out of her beautiful garden and sitting beside her at church where she always held my hand. She was the best cook and hostess. She made the best chicken and dumplings and chocolate cake. she was a wonderful seamstress and always dressed like a million bucks. She loved the Lord and I cannot wait to see her one day in Heaven. She meant the world to me.
