

Morris Kornberg

January 6, 1918 - January 15, 2013

Morris "Moishe" Kornberg, age 95, of Waldorf, MD passed away January 15, 2013 at the age of 95.

Moishe was the youngest of six children born on January 6, 1918 to a religious Jewish family in Przedborz, Poland. Aside from his brother, Arie, who immigrated to Palestine in 1933, the remainder of his family was sent to Treblinka, where they met the same fate as the other six million Jews who perished during the Holocaust. Moishe was deported to Auschwitz in 1941 where he slaved for four years in a coal mine. He was on two death marches between concentration camps before being liberated in Theresienstadt on May 3, 1945. In pursuit of a peaceful and quiet life, Moishe immigrated to the US in 1949 and ultimately settled in Waldorf, MD with his beloved wife, Herta. Moishe understood the importance of sharing his life story so that history would never repeat itself, and frequently spoke to children and teens at schools across the country. Moishe survived his wife of 58 years, who believed in her "Mietek" and cared for him deeply. Moishe will be missed dearly by his family and all who knew him.
