“ Dear Mann Family, Joyce holds a special place in my heart. Working with Ron Mann @ PGCC, I owe them both. I was blessed enough to work with Joyce in the concessions area, during athletic events. She never expected more than she was giving. She was a hard worker, we laughed often, as I usually had more popcorn on the floor , than in the bags. May your blessings include memories of Joyce's smile and laugh. Iva

“ I will always remember the fun times working with Joyce in the school cafeteria when we gave her a nickname as" Chicken Legs" because they were so thin! Her family and mine grew a summer garden on the property of Claire Rowe off of Rt. 225 and enjoyed meeting there "making our kids weed the garden" While we picked our produce. She will forever hold a special place with the Knodle/Kurtz family as neighbors in Oak Hill Estates since 1971-1984. Glad you are at peace now Joyce!! To all of the Mann family knowing she is forever looking down and happy with no pain! God Bless All Of You! LOVE, MARY KNODLE AND FAMILY
