“ I had the extreme pleasure of being Mrs. Wade's neighbor in Hudson Ridge; Mrs. Wade and my family lived across the street from one another; we were neighbors for the better part of 26 years. Mrs. Wade touched a great many people, the least of whom was my family. Mrs. Wade loved children, and mine were no exception. My children accepted Mrs. Wade as their "adoptive" grandmother, and it was her kind thoughts and prayers that lent strength to the adults they've become. We thoroughly enjoyed our visits w/Mrs. Wade, and always found her to be positive and charming. Mrs. Wade was very regal, and had a tremendous devotion to our Lady, the Blessed Mother, Mary, Ever Virgin. We pray that Mrs. Wade was marked w/the sign of faith, for the happy repose of her soul, and that she sleeps in the rest of eternal peace. We love you, Mrs. Wade!

“ Ms. Nellie gave me advice on how to stay healthy. When she was working in Pembroke and she saw me there and asked me what I was doing here, again? I told her and she told me what to do to keep out of the doctor 's office. It worked. Thank you Ms. Nellie and rest in paradise 🙏. Marian Chesley
