“ *Nanny touched everyone’s life she met!
The love for her Savior just spilled over to others! A true prayer warrior she was! All your request you shared with her was taken to the Lord in Faith believing God would answer! Her love for her family was always at the top of the list! She loved each and everyone with all her heart! Nanny was a strong yet humble lady that we all respected!
A quiet spirit yet strong in her beliefs!
You will be missed by so many!
We sang I’ll fly away at church today and my heart rejoiced thinking of you nanny! I’m so thankful for her love support and prayers in our life that have made a eternal lasting impact that we will never forget!
We will see you again!
Our prayers and support for all the family! Barry and Wanda (T.T.)*

“ The most wonderful memories of nanny is the times spent with her surrounded by family, her love for God and her strength! She was happiest when all the family was together! I was amazed by her strength and faith in God in the good times and the tough times. I know she is smiling in heaven reunited with her loved ones and living her life pain free! God bless you nanny. We will miss you 🙏💜
