“ I am just heartbroken to hear about this. I have not seen him in a few years but we always had a special connection. We were the type of friends who picked up right where they left off even if a couple years had passed. I loved him deeply. Nick you will be missed greatly and to his family, I am so sorry for your loss. He was 1 in a million.

“ We feel deep sorrow for your loss. Nicholas was a very nice young man, he always had a smile for me and everyone he knew. When I think of him I remember him as a little boy swimming in his grandmother pool. I too remember the cute little face with the big smile...Nicholas you will be missed. God is with you now and always. Rest in peace.

Mike and Debbie – May the memories of Nick help you find peace with his unexpected passing. Our hearts truly breaks for your loss. In Nick's memory, we have donated to Hope House. Love Uncle Jim, Kathy, Aaron, Amber, Saeryn, Allison, Zack and Parker

Nick - Rest in peace sweet boy. Know that uncle Jim and I will always remember you with smiles and laughter. I will never forget the joy you used to bring to our home, vacations and family gatherings when you visited, especially when you would sleep over with Aaron. Hearing you boys up in Aaron's room laughing, role-playing (imitating the Ninja Turtles with sound effects and all) used to crack us up. Jim and I would sit on the stairway steps with our coffee and just quietly listen to you guys. I take comfort in knowing that you are safe, at peace, and the angels are eternally with you.

Love Uncle Jim and Kathy

Nick, Barry and Fay will always have a picture in our mines eye of your hair cut in that cute little bowl cut with the biggest smile on your cute little face when you came to visit with your mom and dad and a bunch of other crazy people from the gang. Seeing you again through the years as a grown man was a real joy for us. Rest high on the mountain we will miss you.

Sending love and prayers to all of Nick's family and friends. I did not get to know Nick as an adult, but have many fond memories of him as a beautiful child and teenager. He will live on as such in heaven above.
