

Nolan Hertzfield Wilder Jr.

December 30, 1958 - October 29, 2017

Nolan Hertzfield Wilder, Jr., born to Martha and Nolan Wilder, on December 30, 1958, in New York City. Beloved of family he was known to all as Jr.

At an early age, the family relocated to Winston Salem, North Carolina where he lived for a great part of his life.

In 2000 he and his mother moved to Virginia with his sister Deborah. Deborah and her girls adored Jr. they became loyal and dedicated caretakers to both he and their mother/grandmother as their health declined.

Jr. was a true patriot whom loved all things American especially the American Flag.

Jr. had a love of music, he loved to sing, dance and play his guitar. He enjoyed countless hours engaged in doing so. He also possessed the uncanny ability to look at a picture of a puzzle and effortlessly put it together. He loved bowling and swimming as well. He participated in the special olympics and proudly wore his medals.

Jr. had an internal peace that sustained him through the difficult times of life but most importantly, he had the love of family that held him close to comfort him, to provide for and protect him. In that Jr. knew all was well. In that he thrived and lived a full life. When he was a child the Doctors reported he'd never walk but with faith, love and commitment of family, he was full of determination and perseverance, he overcame the physical adversity and walked. Love sees the possibilities and knows.

Jr. was preceded in death by his parents, Nolan and Martha Wilder, and his brother William Hawkins. He leaves to love him still and treasure his memory, his sister, Deborah Searcy, his nieces Tina Turner (Jarrett) and Kendra Hairston, a great niece Jaina Turner and other family and friends.

“ Nolan was a wonderful person. He had a wonderful smile that brightened the room. The last Christmas party we attended he showed off his love of dancing. We rocked away the afternoon until we tired ourselves out. Whenever music started he began the "Nolan Shuffle". He did not need a partner to enjoy dancing. Nolan, you have a smile that will shine down from heaven. Take peace my friend. You will be fondly remembered.
