

Norman Lilburn Ray

November 6, 1935 - June 10, 2020

Norman Lilburn Ray, 84, of La Plata, Maryland, formerly of Fallston, Maryland and Weston, Florida, passed away on Wednesday, June 10, 2020 at the Charles County Hospice House in Waldorf.

Born on November 6, 1935 in Franklinville, Maryland, he was the son of the late Stanley Ray and Myrtle Ray. Mr. Ray was a draftsman, land developer and wireless communication consultant for both commercial and residential projects throughout Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife Ann Eda Ray, siblings Lee, Shirley, Nell and Carroll.

Mr. Ray is survived by his sons Christopher and Brian; grandchildren Christopher, Samantha, Connor and Sean.

Service and interment will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Charles County, 2505 Davis Road, Waldorf, Maryland 20603.

We welcome you to provide your thoughts and memories on our Tribute Wall.

Tribute Wall

“ Norman Lilburn Ray

October 08, 2023 at 10:45 PM

“ Norman Lilburn Ray

October 04, 2023 at 03:12 PM

“ It's a shame that he never acknowledged his first child or his first wife, Mary Lynn Hanson Ray who preceded him in death in October 2019. I was his son born in April 1958 & we had not spoken since I turned 30, nor seen each other since I was 5 years old. His father Stanley (Pop Pop) taught me how to read at an early age. My condolences to his 2nd family. I have his original birth certificate if the family needs it.

Steve Ray - March 01, 2021 at 04:15 PM