“ Matt. 25 35 "For I was hungry and you gave Me Food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took me in..."v.40 And the King will answer and say to them, Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethern, you did it to Me." Thank you for loving, caring, spiritually guiding me, one of the least of these. The impact you made in my life and others has eternal value. My heart is heavy but I know you have entered into your reward. Praise God!

“ I remember Uncle Walton came to the house, many years ago, and I was so excited to show him my very first vegetable garden. It was hard for him to speak through the hysterical laughter when he saw it, but he did manage to say "that's cute!" It might have made me feel bad but his laugh was so infectious that I had to laugh too! I will always remember him with smiles. Rest In Peace Uncle Walton.
